STOLEN BONDS CASHED IN THE TWIN CITIES

WARRANTS ISSUED FOR 26 MEN; TWO ARE ARRESTED

BONDS WERE SOLD THROUGH UNSUSPECTING BANK CLERKS OR ACCOMPLICES OF THEIRS

BANKERS AND TRUST COMPANIES ARE SAID TO HAVE BEEN VICTIMIZED

(By United Press.) St. Paul, June 14.—Nearly $1,000,000 worth of liberty bonds and other securities stolen in New York, Chicago and Philadelphia, have been cashed in the Twin Cities, postal inspectors told the United Press today.

Probably $750,000 worth of these bonds have been sold here through unsuspecting bank clerks or accomplices of the bond thieves.

Warrants have been issued for 26 men, including several bank clerks and automobile salesmen in St. Paul, but only two of them have been arrested up to early today.

The four "big men" sought in connection with the bond theft had disappeared when federal agents were ordered to round them up early today, according to W. J. Marles, postal inspector in charge in this district.

Investigation during the last three weeks, according to Marles, has revealed quite a number of bank clerks were cooperating in the scheme to dispose of the stolen bonds here. Bank clerks were used by the illegal holders of the bonds to install confidence in the prospective buyers.

Bankers and trust companies as well as bond brokers are said to have been victimized by the flood of stolen securities.

Stores of small and large depositors in banks are believed to have purchased bonds at reduced prices.

The Twin Cities are virtually "saturated" with stolen bonds, according to postal inspectors working on the case.

The report alleged those who have brought in the bonds in the Twin Cities also dealt in drugs and liquor. Information reached Inspector Marles that a prominent aviator of St. Paul was offered $20,000 to fly to Canada and return with a cargo of narcotics which would be delivered to him there.

Inspector Marles indicated that there were two big postal robberies in Chicago which had never been made public. He said there are millions of dollars worth of stolen bonds in circulation over the country.

"The men sought have fled," said Marles. "There is every indication that they fled when news of the impending roundup leaked out."

"We were ready to place our hands on the men, for whom warrants have been issued already. The roundup would have come within 36 hours."

Although a number of men who have been selling bonds locally have been located, the investigation centers on getting the actual thieves.

BROTHER OF WARD SUMMONED TO TELL STORY OF SHOOTING

(By United Press.) White Plains, New York, June 14.—Ralph D. Ward today was summoned before the grand jury to tell the inside story of the killing of Clarence Peters by his brother Walter S. Ward. District Attorney Weeks has secured from Gustav Morschauer an order compelling Ralph Ward to answer questions before the grand jury or go to jail.

This action was taken when Ward refused to reply yesterday. Ralph Ward is said to have learned from the lips of his father, George S. Ward, millionaire baker, the facts in connection with the shooting of Peters by Walter S. Ward.

These are the facts he is now called upon to reveal. The elder Ward is at Williamsport, Pennsylvania, and cannot be subpoenaed as a grand jury witness at this time.

Brainerd Orators Speak for the Home Coming

300 PERSONS ARE REPORTED DROWNED IN SAN SALVADOR

San Salvador, Republic of Salvador, June 14.—Three hundred persons are known to have been drowned and many persons are missing following an abnormal rise in the Acelhuate and Arenal rivers, which overflowed their banks and joined together in one stream, inundating the Candelaria district in this city. Several houses were swept away by the raging torrent.

The bodies of 300 men, women and children already have been found. The flood was caused by a two-day torrential rainfall. The government has sent a relief expedition here to succor people in distress. A large subscription list has been started for the relief of the sufferers.

MOB GATHERED TO LYNCH MURDERER IS DISPERSED

CONFESSES TO MURDER OF MISS MALLET, MATRON OF CRITTENDON HOME

(By United Press.) Jackson, Mich., June 14.—A mob of 3,000, attempting to storm the Jackson jail and get possession of George Straut, ex-convict, who confessed the murder of Miss Mallet, was dispersed early today by tear bombs hurled into the crowd by deputies.

Miss Mallet, matron at Crittendon home, was found brutally slain and her body mutilated with an axe, on June 9th.

Straut, an ex-convict and regarded as mentally subnormal, was under suspicion, from the first. A complete confession was made public early last night.

The streets were soon filled with hundreds of persons weaving about and talking mob violence. The menacing, threatening crowd soon started to gravitate toward the jail, and denunciations became louder. Hundreds of women and children were in the crowd.

Many women led the party in taking the confessed slayer's life. The crowd shifted forward to the jail steps and cheered. George Larabee ordered the deputies to throw gas bombs toward the second floor windows.

MISS SALISBURY IS ARRAIGNED ON FIRST DEGREE MURDER CHARGE

(By United Press.) Montevideo, Minn., June 14.—Carried into court by bailiffs, Elsie Salisbury late Tuesday heard a charge of murder in the first degree placed against her.

Attorneys for the wife of a girl who shot and killed Oscar Erickson last April entered a plea of not guilty for her.

The prosecution moved a continuance until the November term of court. The defense demanded that bail be set.

Judge G. E. Qvale ruled that the offense was not bailable. Defense announced that a writ of habeas corpus will be issued and taken before the supreme court to determine whether the girl can be released on bail. It was agreed in case the supreme court decided she may be released, the amount of bail would be fixed at $10,000.

Miss Salisbury was carried back to her jail cell just in time for the evening meal. Her condition is greatly improved. Soon after the shooting physicians feared her mental and physical condition might result in her death.

She has never revealed the cause of the slaying.

SUPREME COURT IS ACTUAL RULER OF AMERICAN PEOPLE

CHARGES SENATOR LA FOLLETTE IN SPEECH BEFORE AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR

URGES CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT GIVING CONGRESS POWER TO NULLIFY DECISIONS

(By United Press.) Cincinnati, June 14.—Asserting that the supreme court of the United States is now "the actual ruler of the American people," Senator La Follette, in a speech to the American Federation of Labor convention today, proposed the passage of a constitutional amendment giving congress the right to nullify any decisions of the high tribunal knocking out law by re-enacting the measure.

The court, the senator declared, has assumed power over the laws and public policies of the country which the "I believe this question of judicial emancipation is now the supreme is-framers of the constitution never intended it should have."

La Follette declared in his speech, which was full of attacks on those hostile to labor.

It is understood these operators are seeking to bring about a conference of operators and miners that would end the strike. Those conferring with Davis are Joseph Hurstlove and F. E. Tatlin, of Cleveland, and Ernest H. Gilbert, of West Virginia.

Popular election of the judiciary, which is a plan long advocated by union labor, will not remedy the situation, he said.

Cincinnati, June 14.—Resolutions introduced in the American Federation of Labor convention here today call for:

1. Acceptance of the Henry Ford Muscle Shoals project by congress.

REPORTED 90 PER CENT OF 11 RAILROAD UNIONS VOTED FAVORABLE TO STRIKE

(By United Press.) Chicago, June 14.—Executives of 11 large railroad unions have been authorized to order a strike for their 1,200,000 members.

Information in railroad union circles here today was that more than 90 per cent of the votes canvassed were favorable to a strike. Balloting started Sunday, and the official canvassing is expected to be completed in time to order the walkout for July 1 or July 15 if the union heads decide to make use of the strike vote at that time.

LAD 17 CONFESSES TO MURDER OF FATHER

(By United Press.) St. Cloud, Minn., June 14.—Jacob Steller, 17, lead authorities to the shallow grave where he had interred the body of his father, and confessed to the killing, according to County Attorney Paul Ahles today.

Thomas Steller, 45, the father, disappeared Sunday. The son led searching parties. Neighbors told of trouble between father and son, and the lad was questioned. He finally admitted shooting, first claiming it was accidental. The boy was held without charge, pending investigation by a coroner's jury today.

The elder Steller was buried at Holdingford, following an autopsy.

Secretary Davis Holds Conference With Three Operators to Settle Strike

(By United Press.) Washington, June 14.—Another conference with three coal operators, looking toward a possible settlement of the coal strike, was held today by Secretary of Labor Davis.

It is understood these operators are seeking to bring about a conference of operators and miners that would end the strike. Those conferring with Davis are Joseph Hurstlove and F. E. Tatlin, of Cleveland, and Ernest H. Gilbert, of West Virginia.

FEDERATION WILL ATTEMPT TO PUT END TO CHILD LABOR

WILL APPEAL TO MOTHERS TO USE THEIR VOTES TO ACCOMPLISH RESULTS

WOULD SECURE IN EVERY STATE ENACTMENT OF LAW PROHIBITING CHILD LABOR

(By L. C. MARTIN (United Press Staff Correspondent.) Ohio National Guard Armory, Cincinnati, June 14.—The mother love of America is to be organized by the American Federation of Labor to put an end to child labor.

In a great campaign, which was inaugurated here today at the federation convention, organized labor will appeal primarily to the nations mothers to use their votes in accomplishing the double objective of the foes of the child labor.

The two objectives are:

1. Enactment in every state of the union laws prohibiting employment of children, with drastic penalties for violation.
2. Amendment of the federal constitution to permit congress to enact state federal child labor laws which the supreme court says congress cannot now enact without infringing upon the constitutionality of the separate states.

AMERICAN SHIPS ARE WORST BOOZE JOINTS IN THE WORLD, BUSCH

ALL KINDS OF LIQUOR SOLD OUTSIDE 3-MILE LIMIT UNDER RULING OF SHIPPING BOARD

(By United Press.) Washington, June 14.—Sale of liquor outside of the three-mile zone on shipping board steamers and other ships flying the American flag is legal, the shipping board has decided.

Chairman Lasker made this known in a letter to Adolphus Busch III, who transmitted a letter from his father, August A. Busch, president of the Anheuser Busch Co., in which it was charged the shipping board steamers were selling all kinds of liquor and that this was a violation of the Volstead law, which made the United States government "incomparably the greatest bootlegger in the world."

The shipping board steamers, Busch asserted, are the "vildest on the ocean, and passage is being sold with the "positive money back guarantee" that the bars will be opened outside the three-mile limit.

CONTROL OF SOVIET RUSSIA PASSES TO THREE DICTATORS

(By United Press.) Berlin, June 14.—Control of Soviet Russia is passing into the hands of a triumvirate as did France in the days of the revolution, according to Freiheit.

Nikolai Lenin, dictator no longer, his health shattered and his mind weakened by strain and disease, is turning over the reins of Bolshevism to a committee of three—Kameneff, Rykov and Stalin, it is stated.

The Soviet premier, if not actually at the point of death, is compelled to leave Moscow for at least six months, taking a complete rest, according to the information.

MILTON KODIS, 43, SUICIDES IN HIS FRATERNITY HOME

WRITES NOTE OF APOLOGY FOR MUSSING UP ESTABLISHMENT BY ACT

(By United Press.) Minneapolis, June 14.—"My most humble apologies for mussing up the establishment in this manner," wrote Milton Kodis, 43, to his fraternity brothers before he fired a shot through his heart.

Kodis was found dead at the Xi Psi Beta fraternity house.

He left two notes, one to his sweetheart and the other to his fraternity brothers. Miss Genevieve Hyde's note read:

"Dearest Angel: I hate to do this, but it is the quickest way out."

The other note read:

"I cannot for the devil of me understand why I am imbued with this nonchalant spirit. All my worldly goods go to the fraternity but give Genevieve what she wants."

Kodis is believed to have been an orphan. He graduated from the university last year, and taught for a term at the high school of Brown's Valley.

DR. J. A. THABES ASKS WALKER TO ATTEND LOCAL CELEBRATION

50TH ANNIVERSARY AND HOME COMING CELEBRATION IS WIDELY ADVERTISED

COL. C. D. JOHNSON TAKES ISSUE WITH "OLD TIMER" ON SOME HISTORICAL DATES

Dr. J. A. Thabes brought the message of Brainerd's 50th anniversary celebration and home coming July 3 to 9 to the company assembled at the George Crow Fishing club expeditior at Otter Tail Point. He waited until the dinner was well settled and every man had his back comfortably resting against some giant tree in the woods, when the doctor opened the floodgates of his eloquence and literally washed the company into declaring they would all be at Brainerd sure. He brought back tender recollections of the old swimming hole, the pioneers and then swung to present times and said that a visit in Brainerd would be a revelation in showing what remarkable strides the town has taken in a half century.

All Brainerd people should remember that when at a picnic or convention or any gathering, strive to bring up the fact of Brainerd's colossal 50th anniversary celebration and home coming week. You are doing something for your town and helping the celebration. Brainerd wants every form of publicity used to herald the news of the great celebration.

Greek Meets Greek
It was a case of Greek meeting Greek when one pioneer bumps into another. It appears that our "Old Timer" of the Dispatch has slipped his lead pencil on some occurrences, just some mere details, and Col. C. D. Johnson takes exception to them in the following letter to the Dispatch:

Col. Johnson in Print
"I have been reading with interest your publication of the 'Old Timer's' review of the events in Brainerd in years gone by. Let me correct a few."

"The first passenger train that came from t. Paul via Sauk Rapids to Brainerd was November 7 or 8, 1877. I came to Brainerd on the second train run from St. Paul to Brainerd via Sauk Rapids November 9th, 1877."

When A. P. Farrar Came
"Old Timer states A. P. Farrar arrived here in 1876. He came here in November, 1877. Another mistake. S. V. R. Sherwood was postmaster in 1877 and the postoffice was in the frame building where the Haydon ice cream office now is, not on the lot where the City Hotel was located."

Hook and Ladder
"He recalls the sale of the old fire hook and ladder cart, which he remembers as being sold by the village board in 1876. No, it was sold after I came here in 1877, must have been in 1878. I remember the howl well!"

"The present fire department was organized in 1883. I was a charter member of the hook and ladder company. I remember well the time and election of Al Leopold as chief of the fire department, and his epigrammatic statement, 'I, Your Noble Chief!' We had our annual firemen's parade wind up at Gregory square, when we were addressed by B. F. Hartley, our mayor and our chief of the fire department, Al Leopold. It was on that occasion that he used that expression, 'I, your Noble Chief,' and it clung to him ever after."

Don't Take Offense
In narrating events of half a century ago, we don't wish our Old Timer to feel aggrieved at being called to task on some dates. It merely shows what an interest his memoirs have aroused and how everybody is figuring up on what he is writing.

Col. Johnson has kept a diary and has been as painstaking in that regard as the late John Cochran who kept weather records on the casing (Continued on page six)

BARON ROTHSCHILD
SEES FIRST REPORTERS

The young scion of the world's richest family who is in America studying banking conditions, had his first interview with a newspaper reporter, while in California. He broke the rule that has kept the Rothschild family immune from interviewers when a San Francisco newspaper man cornered him. The baron's chief interest was in the great automobile and steel factories here.

Social Climbers in Germany.

Old decorations and titles are still craved by social climbers in republican Germany. This is shown in a case in which an international impostor and his accomplice, who is a lunatic, were tried for fraud, says the Montreal Herald. The prisoner was charged with having traveled over Germany representing himself to be a papal count and chamberlain of the Vatican and selling papal baronetcies and orders for thousands of marks each. The titles are said to have been solemnly bestowed by the demented accomplice, who was formerly a veterinary surgeon, and whose mania is believing himself to be a ruling prince. A Munich art dealer paid 16,000 marks for a nonexistent Lateran order, while a Frankfurt merchant underwent solemn investiture as a Maltese knight. But when the new knight did not pay the promised sum he was deprived of his title, which originated only in the fertile imagination of the false papal count.

The Tipping Problem.

"The tipping problem in Italy," said a traveler, "has been solved—incorrectly. Ten per cent is added to your hotel bill for tips; these tips the management distributes among the hotel staff; you give nothing yourself. "A solution, but an incorrect one, for by it the Italian waiter who has been rude to you gets as much of your money as the one who has been devoted. That is wrong, of course.

"In a Nice hotel I encountered a solution that was better. There 10 per cent was added to my bill for tips, but I was given paper vouchers, a kind of hotel currency, for the amount, and they told me to distribute these vouchers as I pleased. I did so. The people who had served me well were generously rewarded. Those who had neglected me got nothing.

"A solution, eh? But I asked myself, as I distributed my paper vouchers, how I was any better off by the new system than by the old one."

Learning to Play.

Albanian children are playing for the first time since the beginning of the war and are being taught American games. This has been made possible by funds contributed by American children through the Junior Red Cross. These children have never learned to play nor to laugh, but, every day now, outside the old parliament building in Tirana, schoolboys may be seen playing prisoners' base, burn the city, duck on the rock, hop scotch and other games that have made the American children the brightest in the world.

The girls indulge in all the games and frolics popular among their little sisters in America. During school hours they are taught also to sew, embroider and care for the sick.

CAUSE and EFFECT

Chiropractic goes several links farther back in the chain of cause and effect. While the germ theorist stops at the susceptibility of the patient, the chiropractor says that the susceptibility is a result of a lack of vital power or mental impulses, due to pressure on a nerve caused by a misaligned vertebra; and that when the vertebra is adjusted, the normal powers will again flow over the nerve, the effected will again become normal and the disease germs and every other incidental effect will disappear.

DOCTOR'S DILEMMA IN CHINA

Ignorant and Superstitious Natives Beseech Physician to Perform All Kinds of Impossibilities.

The rain was coming in sheets, and we had to stop at three this afternoon. Since then I have had a number of patients. A boy of eleven, who fell over a cliff and broke his arm, eleven months ago, is here with all his relatives, asking me to make the bones grow together again. There was no treatment for the arm when the accident happened, for the native doctors know nothing of surgery. They found some vile-smelling concoction to the arm with bamboo splints and put another plaster of the same mixture on the back, "to draw the bone up." The arm is, of course, useless. I suggested an amputation, but the relatives will not consent to a mutilation of the body. The boy tried to prove to me, by opening and closing his hand, that the arm had life, and he would not believe me when I told him that the ends of the bone could not be brought together except by an operation. An old woman, bedridden for many years, is lying in the rain, on a stretcher made of sackcloth and bamboo poles, while her half-blind husband, who almost fell into the water when he came up the plank, pleads with me to give her some medicine to make her "feet walk, her tongue talk and her fingers able to hold her chop sticks." A leper, blind, footless and without hands, is sitting on the bank, begging for relief from the terrible disease that is slowly killing him. He promises to spend his life in making prostrations before me if I will condescend to heal him. A girl with tubercular sinuses in her bound foot tells me that she is to be married soon and that her future husband says he will beat her if she comes to him in poor health.

About four o'clock we went out for a bit of a walk. A poor woman on the bank held out her emaciated baby and asked me to make it see. Some ignorant medical practitioner had run needles into its eyes to drive a demon out of its stomach. The mother offered to bow before every shrine within a radius of three miles if I would only give her baby power to look up into her face.—From "A Fortnight in a Cargo Boat," by William L. Hall, in Asia Magazine.

Parsi, June 13.—France has decided to participate in The Hague conference on Russian affairs.

The cabinet today announced its decision to send experts to the Netherlands capital as a "mission of study" with the understanding that discussions there shall be purely technical. Whether the French delegates will remain to meet the Russians who are not called until after the allied meeting, remains to be decided by the trend of the preliminary negotiations.

AMERICA SELF-RELIANT AND SELF-SUPPORTING

THERE is a good deal of high-sounding talk by some enthusiastic theorists who, in urging world peace, good fellowship, and interchange of commerce, declare that the United States is absolutely dependent upon Europe for its prosperity and future success. To the average citizen, this grandiloquent style of talk borders very close on the line of buncomb, and a very little of that sort of thing goes a long way with him.

As a matter of fact, if there is any one country that could get along very well by being cut off from the rest of the world, that country is America. If by force of circumstances it would be obliged to isolate itself from the rest of the world socially, politically, commercially, financially and in other ways, it would pull through in some way. That could be depended upon. This is eminently a self-reliant and self-supporting country, a real empire unto itself, and it would undoubtedly soon accommodate itself to its new conditions and environments—but that is not so with Europe and Asia.

It is because we feel thoroughly satisfied with these facts, which should be apparent to all, that when threats are held over the heads of American citizens that they must cancel the European debts, take mandates over struggling small countries, make further European loans, and all that sort of thing, or else we will go down with the rest, that we can't help but feel that those making such threats don't know what they are talking about, to say the least.

If these theorizing people who are expressing so much grave concern over the future of our country would be a little more practical instead of seeing visions, would read more for practical information, and carefully investigate conditions and circumstances, and do some rational thinking before giving wings to idle words and lofty phrases that may confuse for awhile but do not convince, they would be doing a real service to their country and their countrymen.

OUR GOVERNMENT TAXES

IT is a very common thing for those who criticize the Republican administration to complain that the people are still struggling under a heavy burden of taxation, despite the promises of the Republicans to lighten it. It cannot be denied that taxes are much higher than in pre-war days, and they undoubtedly will remain so for some time.

It is also true, however, that the running expenses of the government are rapidly getting back to the pre-war figures, but other expenses, growing out of the war, have nearly doubled the former annual expenditures. The interest on the public debt is about a billion a year, the sinking fund is a quarter of a billion, and annual payments for various forms of soldier relief amount to almost half a billion, and these items cannot be quickly reduced, no matter what program of economy is put into effect.

The Republican Congress last year enacted an internal revenue law that took about $800,000 a year from the general tax burden, and the retrenchment that has since been put into effect should make further reductions possible in the near future. The total appropriations actually reported from the House committee are $475,000,000 less than all the estimates sent to Congress. That means a direct saving to the tax payers of that huge sum, for every dollar of it would have had to be raised in taxes.

CAUSE OF INCREASING LIVING COSTS

FROM the report of the joint Congressional Commission on Agricultural Inquiry, recently made public, we have that in the opinion of the Commission a principal cause for increasing living costs in the United States is the "unwieldy system of marketing and distributing commodities, including relatively inefficient means and uneconomical methods coupled with wasteful practices on the part of the public. It now costs more to distribute and serve than to produce, it is asserted. Commodity values are lost in a mass of service costs and the time has come for a consideration of the fundamental problem of the economic distribution of the essentials of living, declares Chairman Sidney Anderson, a Minnesota Congressman.

WATERWAY PROJECT NOT TURNED DOWN

THE announcement is now made that the government of Canada has not definitely turned down the request of the American government that a treaty be negotiated looking to the completion of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence seaway. An impression was created to this effect by the brief statement made in Parliament by Prime Minister McKenzie King.

According to leaders in the movement to assure construction of the great waterway, the Canadian prime minister has merely delayed consideration of the American request for treaty negotiations until the pressure of government business in Canada can be lessened with the adjournment of Parliament on June 20th.

SOLUTION OF WARD MURDER CASE IS EXPECTED TODAY

(By United Press.)
White Plains, N. Y., June 13.—Solution of the mysterious Ward killing case, in which Clarence Peters, penniless ex-sailor was shot by Walter S. Ward, millionaire, is expected today. The great round up of witnesses, including many race track followers and professional "tipsters," has taken place, and several of the witnesses will be taken before the Westchester grand jury today.

They will be asked to tell what they know of the Ward race track activities. Officials believe this line of investigation will solve the "blackmail plot" which Ward says was the cause of the shooting.

ASSASSIN OF PREMIER GIVEN LIFE SENTENCE

(By United Press.)
Tokio, June 13.—A sentence of life imprisonment was pronounced today upon Nakoska, the young Jap student who assassinated Premier Hara several months ago.

Nakoska, when brought before the magistrate, continued his declarations that he killed the premier for the good of the country and because he thought it was his patriotic duty.

STUDY AND WORK

Columbia Students Give Cafeteria an "Atmosphere."

Variety of Races and Countries Represented in Small New York Eating Place.

There is one cafeteria in New York where the dishwashers discuss relatively and the fourth dimension, where the countermen have master degrees, where the bus boys are prepared to give an opinion on the Genoa conference, or the Rapallo agreement. This cafeteria is located in a one-story building just back of the massive gray-domed library of Columbia university and is best known by its title of "commons," the New York Sun points out.

Needy students are given all the jobs in this cafeteria, with the exception of some managerial positions and those in the culinary department.

A visit to this cafeteria a little after noon on a week day in the company of one familiar with the place and its habits will yield some interesting information. The man who serves the soup, for example, is a Nova Scotian. A student of journalism, he is earning his way through by free lancing and by doing odd bits of work. Beside him is a Greek, in this country only a year, but already a master of English.

The dark-skinned man at the griddle is a native of Turkestan, a pre-medical student. He has announced his intention of leaving Columbia at the end of the present semester to continue his studies at Iowa State university, because the expenses are less at the latter institution. The 1,100 miles from New York to Iowa he is to travel by emulating Jack London in his adverse days. This man will practice in Persia when he has finished his education.

Behind the salad counter stand two Chinese students, both beneficiaries of provincial government scholarships worth about $80 a month. There are more than 300 Chinese students in New York city alone, it is said, and more than 2,000 in the whole country, mostly sent here by their governments. At the dessert counter is a Japanese.

Further along are to be found native American countermen, like the others, obliged to earn their way through school. The man who operates the butter cutting machine was a seaman all the early years of his life and went up as far as a third mate's berth before he decided to chuck the sea and get an education. He has four years of college and two in a professional school ahead of him, even after he works off his matriculation requirements. Besides this work at the cafeteria he has a job taking care of an old man, a paralytic.

Among the dishwashers is a Hindu, already the possessor of a master's degree and now working on his thesis for a doctorate. In another year he hopes to return to India, where he has a wife waiting for him, and take charge of an Indian college.

There is a cosmopolitan air about those who eat in this cafeteria. At one table there may be seen a group of olive-skinned Filipinos, more than 100 of whom are now studying in New York city. Next to them there may be two or three striking blonde students, presumably Scandinavians. A Mesopotamian, a student of philosophy, is a frequenter of this place. So are two Russian students and several Italians. It is probably one of the most cosmopolitan eating places in the city and one of the most interesting when something of the history of the employees here is discovered, and something is learned of their struggle against odds to get an education.

Time to Stop.

Sinclair Lewis, author of "Main Street," is fond of lecturing as well as writing, and the best story he told us on his arrival here from America referred to an occasion when he was holding forth on the subject of matrimony.

"Mine has been an ideal marriage," he exclaimed (while those whose marriages had not been ideal listened with pained interest). "My wife and I share our sorrows, our joys, our ambitions, our hopes, our—"

Then a Scotsman interrupted: "What about conversation, Mr. Lewis?"

And it is reported that there was considerable silence.—London Answers.

He Couldn't Tell.

The bus was tilting along at a good speed when an elderly man of ample proportions threw his dignity to the winds by falling into the road in trying to alight while the bus was in motion.

Presently the injured one struggled up and dashed after the vehicle with frantic speed.

"Didn't you see me fall off, conductor?" he shouted.

"Yes, sir."

"Then why didn't you stop?"

"Stop!" ejaculated the conductor. "How was I to know you wanted to get on and do it again?"—Kansas City Star.

London Police Pay Soars.

London's police today costs nearly as much annually as did the whole of the force in England and Wales before the commencement of the war in 1914.

Another Discovery.

A new natural gas field has been discovered in northern Louisiana which is estimated to hold about five trillion cubic feet, making it the greatest natural gas supply yet discovered.

NOT ENOUGH TO KNOW RULES

Successful Authors Have to Pass Very Far Beyond That Stage of the Writing Game.

"A man," said the Schoolmaster, "may know all the rules of poetry and never write a poem; know all the rules of art and never paint a picture; know all the laws of harmony, thorough bass and counterpoint and never write or sing a song that touches a man's soul and starts him drifting on gay dreams or reveries that are sad."

"The reason is that these people never progress farther than rules. Knowing rules is but the beginning. Perhaps a man cannot write without having learned certain rules, though that is debatable, but to write well, a man must have passed so far beyond rules that he does not think of them. But pardon me for speaking at such length on this subject. I was led to thinking of it by hearing so much talk of what is called 'news-paper English.'"

"You have all heard men and women say, and giving an upward tilt to the nose or brow, 'Oh, it is newspaper English!' Sometimes they say with a high air, 'Oh, no, I do not write for the newspapers. I contribute to the magazines.' Why, bless your dear hearts, the best English today is written for newspapers and much of the rottenest written is found in books and magazines. There is a wider and a deeper knowledge of the English language in a newspaper office than in any other kind of office.

"There are too many 'professors of English' handing out bunk to a gullible public."—Boston Herald.

WILL CLOSE HISTORIC ALLEY

London Pathway Which Figures in Pepys' Diary Gives Way to March of Improvements.

Pope's Head alley, a turning off Cornhill, a picture of which appeared in the Times on April 11, will shortly disappear. Lloyd's Bank is going to rebuild its premises at the end of Lombard street, between that street and Cornhill, and to make this possible Pope's Head alley will have to be closed and another thoroughfare constructed in its place, says the London Times.

The alley, which dates back to the days of Henry VI, and is named after a noted tavern, is mentioned several times in the "Diary of Samuel Pepys." In his time the footway was famous for its cutters. Pepys reports that he went to Pope's Head and "bought an agate huffed knife, which cost me 2s." Another day some one took him into the tavern and gave him wine, when they discussed affairs of state. "So home," writes Pepys again, "on my way calling at Pope's Head alley and there bought me a pair of scissors and a brass square."

In 1645 it is recorded, wine was being sold at the tavern at a penny a pint. It was at the Pope's Head tavern that Quinn killed Bowen, a fellow actor, in a duel. The first print sellers in London are said to have opened their shops in the alley.

Deposition of Metals.

It is reported that there has been devised abroad a new process for spraying metals onto surfaces of any kind. The metal to be sprayed forms one of the electrodes of an arc, and a blast of gas impinges on this electrode, directed, however, in such a manner as not to play on the arc and extinguish it.

The gas used for the blast is of a non-oxidizing nature, and its effect is to carry away fine particles of metal, which can thus be deposited on any kind of surface, forming a very thin skin.

When polyphase currents are used, the electrodes may either be convergent or so placed as to cross the streams of gas.

In one form of the apparatus the arc is started by means of the instantaneous discharge from an auxiliary high-tension circuit.—Exchange.

Liberal Eastern Potentate.

The heir to the Ottoman throne, Abdul Medjid, is something new in the way of eastern potentates. According to European papers his life in Constantinople is a model of democracy. The future Commander of the Faithful, who is fifty years old, intensely enjoys the liberty of which he was deprived for thirty years by Abdul Hamid. He is said to divide his activities between music, painting, and writing. His library is stored with French books. His favorite writer is Anatole France, his favorite composer Beethoven. Two interesting signs of regeneration of the Ottoman empire are the facts that Abdul Medjid can be approached without oriental ceremony and that he has suppressed the harem of the palace.

Largest Crystal.

Some time ago there was found what was thought to be the largest of all crystals—a piece of spodumene 29 feet in length. Later, however, Professor Montgomery of Toronto announced that he had measured in the Etta tin mine in the Black hills a crystal of that mineral which was no less than 38 feet six inches in length and 32 inches in thickness. It was, he says, almost perfect in form.

Spodumene is a grayish-white or pink mineral almost as hard as quartz.

World's Petroleum Production.

Petroleum production of the world during the past year amounted to 759,030,000 barrels, an increase of 9.2 per cent over the previous year.

COMMUNITY HOSPITALS AS COUNTY UNITS

(By United Press.)
Minneapolis, June 13.—Establishment of community hospitals as county units throughout Minnesota was endorsed by the university board of regents today.

The matter may be taken up as major legislation, Governor Preus informed the board.

"The need of such institutions has been greatly impressed on my mind by visits to rural communities," he said.

The plan was suggested by Dr. Will J. Mayo, Rochester, world famous surgeon, and member of the board.

HUNG RESUMES THE PRESIDENCY

(By United Press.)
Peking, June 13.—Former President Si Huan Hung arrived in Peking today and agreed to resume the presidency temporarily, filling out his unexpired term if necessary.

In the meantime parliament is to arrange for an election at which his successor will be chosen.

Observers believed this move would go far towards bringing about a final settlement of Chinese governmental difficulties.

CELEBRATE SILVER WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sagli of Oak Lawn Township Entertained Group of 200 Guests

SETTLED HERE 25 YEARS AGO

Farm Was Thresh in a Wilderness of Brush, Today He Has Made It One of the Finest in County

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sagli celebrated their silver wedding Thursday evening, entertaining 200 friends and relatives. Mr. Sagli is a well known and prosperous farmer of Oak Lawn and one of its pioneers. He came here with his bride twenty-five years ago and settled on his farm which was at that time a wilderness of brush. Today he has one of the finest farms in this part of the county.

The evening was pleasantly spent by the large company assembled to do honor to the happy couple. At midnight a supper was served, the tables being set under the trees on the lawn and illuminated with electric lights. Very few guests ever sat down to a larger table, it being 48 feet in length. Covers were laid for eighty at one serving.

A large wedding cake graced the head of the table at which sat the host and hostess. Peonies were lavishly used in table decorations. Mrs. Sagli was beautifully gowned in sand colored canton crepe. She wore a corsage bouquet of roses.

Mrs. George Holler of Staples wore champagne colored georgette and taffeta. Mrs. Holler was formerly Miss Inga Sagli.

Miss Dorothy Sagli wore a gown of sapphire blue canton crepe.

Rev. Karl Stromme of the Norwegian-Danish Lutheran church gave a short talk which was enjoyed by all. He congratulated Mr. and Mrs. Sagli on their successful life and hoped all would be with them to celebrate their golden wedding.

Those who assisted in serving were Mesdames G. Johnson, C. Stanley, J. Holmgren, M. Bell, C. W. Cunningham, Harold Olson, C. Shone, John Sagli, J. Christensen and A. Erickson.

Mr. and Mrs. Sagli received many beautiful pieces of silver.

Guests from Brainerd were Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Trommald, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Reis, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Engbretson, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Opsahl, Mr. and Mrs. E. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Delos Turner, Rev. and Mrs. Karl Stromme, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jernberg, Miss Marie Graber, Mr. and Mrs. George Erickson.

Guests from Staples were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Holler, from Sylvan Wm. Holler; from St. Paul Mr. and Mrs. C. Stanley, Miss Mabel Stanley and Miss Julia Graber.

At the gateway Claus Shone had made a beautiful arch of boughs and from its center hung two large wreaths of roses. After supper many of the young people went to the Oak Lawn town hall and enjoyed dancing until the early hours of the morning.

A Howler From India.

A glimmer of light is shown on the mystery of the simultaneous use of the bathroom for local and hydropathic exercises by the following, written by a student in India: "Climate has a great difference on character. We always observe that if a person enters a hot bath-room he is always compelled to sing and chant. The reason is that heat causes the expansion of the human soul as well as other bodies."—Boston Transcript.

Otis Harlan a Real Pioneer

Otis Harlan in the cast of "Keeping Up With Lizzie," was one of the first "all star" cast ever to appear in motion pictures.

This was in 1904, just 17 years ago, and in those days the motion picture was in its swaddling clothes. The big stage production that year was "The Vanderbilt Cup" and the picture Harlan tells about was used between the prologue and the first act. Elsie Janis and Aubrey Bouccault shared honors with Harlan and the picture made a tremendous hit. The action was something like this:

Otis, Aubrey and Elsie were in an automobile (fancy the auto of 1904) driving along a country road. They pass a farmer driving a horse and give him the merry ha-ha! They go on a short distance and the auto breaks down, then the farmer passes them and hands back the glad guffaw. Otis calls this a censorproof picture.

Hugh Ford directed it and it was made in New York City.

"Keeping Up With Lizzie," made by Rockett and released by Hodkinson, is coming to the New Park on Friday and Saturday.

BILICAN'S GOAT THIRD PARTY EMBLEM

Wilfred Canan of Brainerd Furnishes Design Adopted by Farmer-Labor Party at St. Paul

ELEPHANT, DONKEY, GOAT

Billican's Goat First to Join Political Menagerie Since Nast Originated the Others

About seventy-five years ago, Thos. Nast, the father of cartoons in America, symbolized the Republican and Democrat parties with the elephant and donkey. Nast was employed by Harper's Weekly and for many years contributed political cartoons which are still fresh in the memory of some of our older citizens. Nast is gone but his elephant and donkey as well as the Tammany Tiger, Uncle Sam and numerous other characters survive him and will for all time.

Nast's inventions have been kept alive by hundreds of cartoonists who have had to content themselves with reproducing their predecessor's creations and until last week no other cartoonist has had the pleasure of adding a figure to Nast's political menagerie.

A few days ago another animal entered the ring and if it lives up to its creator's expectations or even follows its natural inclinations it will no doubt cause the ringmasters more worry than all the rest of the political zoo.

A goat was adopted by the Farmer-Labor Party as its permanent emblem at the state convention in St. Paul, June 10th and the honor of its symbolical origin rests with Wilfred Canan, of Brainerd, whose cartoons are always signed "Billican."

The goat appears on celluloid buttons with the inscription, "We kick like mules but use our head" which are being sold all over the state of Minnesota to raise a campaign fund for the Farmer-Labor Party, which is the third party in the fall election.

Billican considers himself lucky in having had the opportunity of originating a cartoon character which in all probability will keep pace with the great Nast creations. He believes the goat will be extensively used in the national campaign two years from now.

U. S. WILL NOT TOLERATE JAP POSITION ON IMMIGRATION

Robinson in defining the American position said Japan should be told America's attitude which would avoid the trouble which is sure to result if the United States misleads Japan on this matter, the senator said in addressing the party.

In the case of Robert Miller, charged with murder, which case came to Crow Wing county by change of venue from Beltrami county. Judge B. F. Wright of Park Rapids, appointed as triers S. F. Alderman, A. D. Polk and F. E. Ebner. It was reported that F. E. Ebner, one of the appointed triers could not be located at the time, and it was therefore ordered that C. D. Johnson be appointed in Mr. Ebner's place. The oath was then administered to the triers. Thirty-two prospective jurors were examined and from that list the jury was eventually chosen, after the first panel was exhausted a special venire was called. Of the latter venire all were present except Andrew Fall who was excused and E. M. Prindle not found.

The first witness for the state was Mrs. Alfred W. Fenton, followed by Louis H. Mixer.

Following the recess Wednesday morning Attorney Mike Daley of Perham, of the defense, told the court that he had been informed, witnesses of the state were publicly discussing the case in the lobby of the court room.

The court then admonished witnesses on both sides to refrain from discussion of the case in public.

The state is represented by Graham Torrance of Bemidji, county attorney of Beltrami county. For the defense are Mike Daley of Perham and Middleton & Middleton of Baudette.

The jurors were ordered kept together and sleeping quarters have been provided in the grand jury room. They are at all times under supervision of a bailiff.

HOPE OF THE FANS

(By Arthur E. Scott)
From the Top-Notch Magazine
'Tis six long years since Bush—you know
His moniker is "Bullet Joe"—
Won Philadelphia's praise and fame,
By his no-hit and no-run game.

In August of the year '16teen
He faced the slugging Cleveland team,
And quickly put them in their place,
For only one man reached first base

He got there on a pass; it's true
The Indians after that looked blue,
For heavy clouters though they were,
All they could do was fan the air.

Since then Joe Bush has traveled round;
But this year as he takes the mound
His mighty arm will strive to aid
The Yankees in their pennant raid.

So all the veteran now acclaim,
Hoping he'll live up to his name
Of Bullet Joe, and perhaps repeat
That wondrous no-hit, no-run feat.
Ed—The above was written before
Bush got well under way. He scores seven wins in a string and for a long time has been at the head of the American League pitching staff.

CHIROPRACTORS MET

Fifth District Practitioners Gather at Little Falls, Brainerd Well Represented

Chiropractors of the Fifth district held a meeting at Little Falls.

There were talks given by many of the chiropractors on the different kind of diseases, such as tuberculosis, gallstones, appendicitis and insanity, and the wonderful good results obtained in those cases under chiropractic adjustments.

The subject was also taken up for discussion of how to go about raising money to erect a chiropractic sanatorium in the northern part of this state. This is something the chiropractors must have in the near future, as there is a big demand for such a sanatorium.

The Fifth district will hold the next meeting at Elbow Lake in August.

GEORGE CROW FISHING CLUB AT LEACH LAKE

Annual Outing Attracts 50 Izak
Waltons Who Get Big Catches of Pike

W. H. GEMMELL IS PRESIDENT

E. J. P. Staede Re-elected 12th Time
Custodian-Secretary-Treasurer

(By a George Crow Fisherman)

The annual outing of the Geo. Crow Fishing club of Leach Lake was thoroughly enjoyed by the members and their guests on the 11th inst. at Walker. About fifty disciples of Izak Walton were on hand. The rules of the club called for a five o'clock a. m. start from the dock. The custodian and secretary, E. J. P. Staede was on hand to greet everyone. He was assisted by the president, Gust Kulander, and also the irrepressible chef, Charles Kinkale who holds a life job in that capacity.

A quick run was made to the grounds, Ottertail Point, about 12 miles from Walker. Breakfast was served at eight o'clock and then the real business of the day was taken up.

Everyone on this trip was an ardent fisherman and eager for the gentle sport. The call for dinner was answered by all the boats coming in loaded down with big catches of wall-eyed pike. "Yum, Yum" such fried pike can only be found as are served on this occasion; all you want and then some.

The business meeting resulted in the election of our fellow townsman, W. H. M. Gemmell, the president of the club for the ensuing year. Mr. Staede was strenuously opposed and campaigned against by two disgruntled members whose only charge against him was that they did not receive special attention at his hands. Their nefarious work was too coarse and the ballot disclosed that he was overwhelmingly re-elected as custodian, secretary and treasurer for the twelfth time.

Those present from Brainerd were: President W. H. M. Gemmell, Mons Mahlum, Dr. Thabes, John Thabes, Dr. Gerber, Henry I. Cohen, Theo. Brusegaard, Alderman Lyons, Art Drogseth, John Carlson, Dr. Melvin Carlson, Ernest Butler, Clyde Parker, Harry Butler, Bob Tinkelpaun, W. C. Mannis, A. G. Trommald, Ben Lagerquist, Dave Schrader, Wm. Turcotte and others.

On the return trip, the look-out spied a shipload of Pat McGarry's guests hoisting signals of distress from the launch "Mignonette". The strong sea running had them at its mercy and they needed help. We turned about and finally succeeded in throwing them a rope and towed them in to Walker. This was very exciting adventure and caused a lot of thrills. Too much praise cannot be given to Bert Chase and his worthy wife who own and preside at the hotel, "Chase". This beautiful hotel can only be appreciated if personally visited. This trip will long be remembered by all who were fortunate to be present.

OLD GLORY

"Resolved, That the flag of the thirteen United States be thirteen stripes, alternate red and white; that the union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation."

In these words did Congress, June 14, 1777, bring into being our "Stars and Stripes."

To honor its birthday is a matter of peculiar pride to truehearted Americans. As our flag, it compels respect and admiration; as a perpetual memorial of our national history, it will ever command reverence.

AMUSEMENTS

"The Rosary"

"The Rosary," a big, pulsating photodrama, is the screen attraction this week at the New Park tonight and Thursday.

In the direction of this production Jerome Storm has gained new laurels for himself. And the work of the players interpreting the various roles makes it a new classic. Much credit, of course, must be given to Bernard McConville, who wrote the story, under the inspiration of the theme of the play by Edward E. Rose, and the song "The Rosary."

"The Rosary" is by no means a preachment. It is a strong, virile drama—a human document of the peaceful little fishing village of Sandy Bay, which is upset by the malicious activities of one Kenwood Wright.

"Footfalls"

For the filming of a number of scenes in the big William Fox production "Footfalls," representing the streets, houses and environs of a small New England fishing village, a complete town was built in Westchester county, N. Y. Into this improvised village came scores of automobilists, stopping in front of the village store to make small purchases. Many familiar with the region in the past came in amazement to learn the reason for the sudden appearance of a seemingly old town.

Charles J. Brabin, director of the Fox super-special, finally found it necessary to post guards at the entrance to the motion picture village to warn the machines away.

"Footfalls" will open at the Lyceum theatre tonight for a two day run.

"Footfalls" is based on the story by Wilbur Daniel Steele which won the 1920 prize of the O. Henry Committee for the best short story of the year. The picture was directed by Charles J. Brabin, who also wrote the scenario. Tyrone Power leads an excellent cast.

Described.

"What sort of a fellow is he?"

"Well, were you ever driving along a busy street and held up for several minutes by a man who had discovered that somebody was about to vacate a parking space?"

"Yes."

"And were you forced to stay there until the other man cranked up his car and arranged his bundles and finally started up?"

"Yes."

"And then compelled to wait still longer until the car had maneuvered his vehicle in and out several times in order to squeeze his car into the vacant spot?"

"Yes."

"Well, the chances are it was the fellow you just asked about."

Decorated by All Allies.

Samuel Glucksmann, a sergeant of the Sixth Marines, has been decorated by every allied government for his distinguished service during the World war. One of his feats was the capture of twenty Germans single handed in an engagement at Mont Blanc.—The Argonaut.

GOD OF WEALTH

Japanese Deity Whose Favor Naturally Is Sought.

Worshippers at His Shrine, However, Are Comparatively Few Considering His Reputed Powers.

Japan's "Seven Gods of Good Luck" are a clan of deities from which philosophy, religion and superstition have borrowed much of their origin.

They are a queer set of deities, swept together from many incongruous sources—Japanese Shintoism, Chinese Taoism, Indian Buddhism and Brahmanism. Orientals all, but cosmopolitan Orientals!

They comprise, to give them their full names, Ebisu, Dalkoku, Bentei, Faburouju, Bashamon, Jurin and Hotel.

A full discussion of their origin and attributes would doubtless reveal how slender a basis the modern popularity of these deities has been reared on. Their union in one group is the result of nothing more recent than popular ignorance and confusion of ideas. They themselves never chose to be thus united. They reign in an ideal state, for they have no king or even spokesman among them. Collectively they command perennial, perpetual and everlasting interest. Individually they celebrate their own festivals and each can boast of an entirely different group in his train of devotees.

On Dalkoku's birthday a few of his disciples will worship at his shrine at Azabu and in Osaka. It seems so strange to say "a few," for of all the gods in the cycle of Japanese mythology, in this material age, Dalkoku, the god of wealth, should find greatest favor! But perhaps he has not proved himself to be gracious to supplicants! Perhaps efficacious influences have not been felt in result of worship at his shrines—or is it that even he, the god of wealth, has failed to live up to the extravagant standard our present-day civilization has set as a basis to contentment?

Dalkoku is a Hindu and a Buddhist. The word "Dalkoku" means "great blackness," and when he first came to Japan he was a god of physique and frightful aspect with a face as black as night. Since his naturalization Dalkoku has thrown off some of his native characteristics and has adopted a new mode of living, the chief of his models being Okukikushinomokoto, a famous god in the mythology of Japan.

In the old records this god was represented carrying a large bag on his shoulders. As there is a similarity, in this material age, Dalkoku, the Japanese people somehow mixed up the two characters and molded them into one perfect deity who combines the good points of both. Makihala (Samskrit) was the original name by which he was known in India, where he was feared as god of destruction. His immigration to Japan has changed his incarnation to that of wealth and plenty.

He stands or sits on three bales of rice, having in one hand the usudeno-kouchi or the lucky hammer from which he can produce anything in the world he chooses to, from a palace down to gold or silver, man or beast! He carries on his back a bag full of treasures of all sorts, while rats are his earthly messengers and oftentimes he is represented with one on either side of him, waiting to do his bidding.

Dalkoku is generally coupled with Ebisu, the god of tradesmen. Though they are of totally different birth, race, religion, etc., they have been linked together and one seldom sees the one without the other in close propinquity. Although Dalkoku is not a god to whose shrine worshippers flock, his popularity is told by the number of metallic images of his divinity which are bought and carried as amulets by people seeking wealth.

Shall we test this jovial little man's powers? Go to his shrine and beseech him to command a shower of gold, or carry his image in our pocket and see if we find it gold-lined by night?

We are snobs—all of us—of one kind or another. "We don't care for money," say some haughtily, having none. "I don't know how to spend my money," complains a millionaire. It's Dalkoku's turn to speak and if he but could he would strip the world of its snobism and no doubt reveal a race of human beings all alike in their allegiance to him, the god of wealth!

PLEASED THE "MONEY BAGS"

European Capitalists Listened With Pleasure to Accounts of Rockefeller's Stupendous Wealth.

During my stay in London I accepted an invitation to have luncheon with Lord Rothschild at his office, John Hays Hammond writes in Scribner's. It had been my custom, extending over a period of many years, to drop in informally and have luncheon with the Rothschilds once or twice during each of my frequent visits to London. On these occasions always the most interesting topic of conversation was my estimate of the wealth of Rockefeller and other rich Americans. Lord Rothschild invariably introduced the subject and forewarned, I was ready to give him the desired thrill. He would usually start with some "piker" capitalist, whose wealth did not amount to more than the paltry sum of $100,000,000, and then worked up by queries until he reached the American Croesus, John D. Rockefeller. It would be an unpatriotic American who would belittle the wealth of a compatriot at a time like this, and after having modestly admitted, in reply to Lord Rothschild's question, that Rockefeller was certainly worth $500,000,000, assuming an air of ultra conservatism, I would allow him to extort what to him a delectable fact that Rockefeller was worth at least $750,000,000; and when the money bags around the table stared at me with an expression of pleased surprise, but not of doubt, I would in subdued tone convey to them the fact that in informed financial circles of America the Rockefellers' wealth was estimated at over $1,000,000,000! The internationalism of the Rothschild family, and the utter lack of envy, is evidenced in the unmistakable pleasure which characterized the reception of this titbit of high finance.

BIRDS STILL FAR SUPERIOR

Man's "Conquest of the Air" Seems to Be Thing of the Far Distant Future.

Aviators fly 1,200 miles with two stops for fuel, and the world applauds the deed. Other aviators actually cross the Atlantic—at its narrowest point, some 1,600 miles wide—and the fact stands still unrivaled by a heavier-than-air machine.

But out on the Pacific, an albatross followed a steamer for six days and seven nights without alighting. In this time, the ship traveled nearly 3,000 miles, and the bird, with the circlings, at least as far. Then, with the nearest land 1,900 miles away, the bird swallowed a greedy meal of food thrown over for it, turned abruptly, and disappeared.

Human aviation is a long, long way from having achieved that measure of endurance. It will come—probably—but it is not even in sight yet. In speed, the race between man and bird is close already, and victory in the end is sure to go to the former. As for altitude, the airplane has out-climbed even the condor. But in the supreme test of endurance, of the ability to fly and fly and keep on flying, man is ridiculously inferior.

No Genius Without Pessimism.

Schopenhauer, in his doctrine of the futility of life, emphasizes the fact that genius suffers more deeply and feels more intensely just because of its abnormally developed will and intellect, and that, therefore, genius without pessimism, is unthinkable either in the field of poetry or philosophy.

The placing of Shakespeare and Buddha in juxtaposition is quite in line with the trend of modern thought. Buddhism, like the Tagore cult, is at present in the forefront of interest, and it is safe to say that during the entire century preceding the war there was less written and said on the subject of Buddhism than in the past year. The most widely divergent intellectual currents are being traced back to the Buddhistic source, and every new system of philosophy and all modern historical researches are built up on Buddhistic foundations.—Exchange.

His Recovery Complete.

The Figaro tells of an English sailor named Mitchell who was a past master at the art of tasting whisky. In the war he was asphyxiated and lost his sense of smell and the use of speech. Deprived of his calling, he became a boxer. Now, in a certain bout in London Mitchell received a formidable blow under his nose and another on his jaw. Ten seconds later he was knocked out. One of his attendants rushed some spirits to him. Then Mitchell miraculously recovered and declared, even before wetting his lips, "This stuff is at least fifteen years old."

Takes Sabbatical Year.

In California county agricultural agents have the rank of assistant professors in the state university and are entitled to all the rights and privileges of the resident teaching force. One county agent who has now served eight years in his present position has been granted sabbatical leave, which he will spend in Europe studying rural co-operation. This is the first time in the history of the work that such recognition has been given a county agent.

Oldest Biblical Versions.

The four oldest versions of the Bible are the Aquila, Symmachus, Theodotian, in Greek, and the Peshitta in Syriac.

They're Sometimes in the Way.

Jack—Well, what's the idea of cutting it off now when it took you so long to grow it?

Bill—Of course, you saw me catch Gladys under the mistletoe during the last dance.

"Oh! Wouldn't she kiss you on account of it?"

"Not exactly, but she became so unconscious that she lost her gum in it."—Boston Beatpot.

Oldest Living Newspaper Man?

Amable Maillet-Saint-Prix, a Parisian journalist, who was born in 1821 and is therefore in his one hundred and second year, is in all probability the oldest journalist alive. He is at least the oldest working newspaperman, for he is still vigorous and not only writes a weekly article in the Abbeille de Seine-et-Oise, published in Corbeil, but actually makes up the paper.—The Argonaut.

Diet of Dates.

In days gone by many families in Upper Egypt subsisted principally on dates. The stones or kernels were ground on hand-mills and given to the camels. Within recent years the animals have had to crunch the stones.

Musical Note.

A very deaf old lady, walking along the street, saw an Italian turning a peanut roaster. She stood looking at it awhile, shook her head and said: "No, I shan't give you any money for such music as that, I can't hear any of the tunes, and besides it smells as if there were something burning inside!"—The Congregationalist.
